

Messages about Being Content

We get mixed messages from the world about being content. One message is to be happy with what you have. One message is to get all you can as fast as you can coupled with what you get is yours and no one can take it from you. Somewhere in the middle is a message to be happy with what you have, but that we can always improve and do better. How do you know which one to follow? I believe it comes down to being thankful for what we have and accepting the things that come our way all while challenging ourselves to look for opportunities to grow and serve.

Paul writes in 1 Timothy 6 about people who do not agree with the sound instruction of our Lord Jesus Christ and godly teaching (v. 3) and he goes on in verses 6 through 10 to say:

A decorative border with floral and scrollwork patterns in each corner, enclosing the text.

But godliness with contentment is great gain.
For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it. But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that. Those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.

My challenge to you is to be thankful and content with what you have. Take time to look for ways to serve others and avoid the temptation to fall into the traps of foolish and harmful desires, because the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. We are commanded to love the Lord our God with all our heart, soul, and mind, and to love our neighbors as ourselves. (Matthew 22: 37-39)

East Hill's Vision Narrative

East Hill is a community where every Christian belongs to the body and grows together into the image of Jesus Christ. We acknowledge that each of us is unique and has different gifts, but we are one body in the Spirit.

At East Hill, our Christianity is lived out through the use of our gifts. We believe that every member has been gifted and that each one of us is called to use his or her gift in service to the family of God. We challenge one another to make church-life central to our own lives. We encourage and support one another in our combined effort of serving Christ.

At East Hill, our Christianity is also lived out through our proclamation of the gospel of Jesus Christ in our community. We share privately and publicly what God has done and is doing among us. We also equip one another to share their faith with those outside of Christ so that they, too, can participate in the grace of God and the blessings of the Kingdom.

We know that East Hill exists not just for our own good, but to serve as a witness of Jesus before the world, beginning right here in the York community. We are motivated by the return of Christ and the glory of God.
