

What a Blessing!

As Christians we are encouraged to count our blessings. "Count your many blessings, name them one by one..." I would like to take this opportunity to share with you a few updates about one of the areas we are blessed with here at East Hill: the blessing of owning a building. It is used in so many ways to serve the kingdom.

We have a place to gather for our Bible classes and times of worship. Our building is used for mission fundraisers, weddings, craft days, men's breakfasts, graduation parties, and many other events. Twice a year it is transformed into York's largest clothing outlet. Seminars, YU homecoming, potlucks, and fellowship gatherings are all housed here. Our building is a busy place and its use is a blessing to many. I would like to share with you updates on three areas concerning our building.

First, after many years of needing one, we now have an accessible sidewalk leading to the church basement. It begins at the southeast corner of the lower parking lot and provides a low sloped route to the outside basement doors. Our prayer is that this will be a blessing to those who have been prevented from attending activities in the church basement because it was not easily accessible.

Next, we are implementing a new way of communicating building maintenance needs. It is often a challenge to keep up with areas that need attention and items that need to be repaired. We will be posting a QR code around the building that will take you to a google form where you can note maintenance needs. Your request will be emailed to several individuals who will see that the repairs are made. Hopefully, this will help us all work together to be good stewards of what God has given us.

The final area I wanted to let you all know about relates to concerns for the East Hill Church of Christ Office located on the corner of 10th and Florida. Both of our ministers and our secretaries spend a lot of time in this building. The house used for our office space has an increasing number of shortcomings and has brought us to the point of needing to evaluate how to address some of the problems with this building. The elders have appointed a committee to look at the issues with our current office space and to come up with some options for addressing these needs. We are early in this process and no decisions have been made. Please visit with any of the elders if you have questions or input on this process.

The biggest blessing of the East Hill church of Christ is the joy of being part of an amazing body of believers, working together for the Kingdom. And we are grateful for a building where so many of those Kingdom activities can take place. What a Blessing!

CELEBRATE

MINISTRIES & EVENTS

QPR Suicide Training Workshop on Thursday, November 7, 6:00-7:30 pm. "Question, Persuade, and Refer" are three simple steps everyone needs to know to help prevent suicide. Refreshments will be offered and no registration is needed. Contact the church office or Glenn Dallmann with any questions.

Bible, Bacon & Bros Men's Breakfast is 8:00 am next Saturday in the fellowship hall. Grab your Bibles and come hear Mark Brigg's parting encouragement and challenge to East Hill's men as he & Rhonda prepare for their move to Oklahoma after 30 years of worshipping and serving among us.

Communion: We have been blessed by several visitors and guests lately. There are tables set up in the front and back if you want to get up and take Communion in family groups. Otherwise, there are prepared cups that you can take to your seat and take Communion in your pew.

Body Life: East Hill is a church family, albeit a large one. It's a challenge keeping up with each other. Which is why we're always glad to share a congratulations or word of praise and affirmation here in the bulletin. Please remember us when you have a word of encouragement you want to share.

Book Ministry: Ken Alley, our very own book specialist, has been keeping the book shelf in the lobby filled with titles related to encouraging people in their faith. This will be a take-read-return, keep, or pass on kind of library. Books are gifts that keep on giving. You can even make suggestions on titles or topics you would like to see. We hope you will check it out often.

Bulletin Announcements in the Holiday Season: With the Holiday season upon us, the office wishes to remind everyone that we often need items for the bulletin in a little earlier than the rest of the year. On non-holiday weeks, please have bulletin items to the office by Thursday. On Thanksgiving week, we will need anything for the December 1 bulletin by the evening of Tuesday, November 26.

Make every effort to live in peace with everyone and to be holy; without holiness no one will see the Lord.

Congratulations to Hal Hockersmith who received the November Employee of the Month award at York General Hospital!

Thank you to everyone who participated in the New Song Night last Wednesday! About 100 people attended. We learned two songs: "Goodness of God" and "Man of Sorrows." We plan to include these songs several times in our worship until we learn them. Contact Glenn Dallmann if you would like the MP3 recording. Copies of the sheet music are on the table in the foyer.

Blessing Tree for Mark and Rhonda Briggs—We want to send Mark and Rhonda off with our very best wishes when they move to Oklahoma at the end of this month. For the next two Sundays, we will have a Blessing Tree in the foyer. Write your blessing and add it to the tree or bring a card from home.

Scripture Memory for the week of November 3 Philippians 4:7

Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.
